Activities & Exhibitions

Visitors will be able to attend several exhibitions that are free and for all ages.

At the Ontario Museum of History & Art, visitors can see the new permanent exhibition, Built on Water: Ontario and Inland Southern California, as well as Día de Los Muertos: Recuerdos de Sabores/Flavorful Memories, which is celebrating its 25th year at the museum.

The Chaffey Community Museum of Art, known for showcasing visual art with regional artists, have on view several shows, including Beyond Words, a group exhibit exploring the profound interplay between language and visual expression, and the annual West End Photo Invitational.

There are also several opportunities to enjoy hands-on activities at the Arts Festival, including face painting and a Día de los Muertos art project, in honor of the exhibit.

Live Music

Live American and Latin Jazz performances provided all day by Inland Empire artist, Homero Chavez y Una Noche.

Beer & Wine Garden*

Enjoy locally produced beer and wine, generously provided by Strum Brewery and Joseph Filippi Winery. Sales from beer and wine benefit CCMA exhibitions and educational programs.

Ages 21+ wristbands

- * To purchase beer and wine, proceed to the Information Booth to receive a wristband. Be prepared to present your ID to the booth attendant. All alcoholic beverages may not leave the event zone.
